Volume XVI

In Dedication

In recognition of his many years of service in the New Haven school system and the contributions he has made toward better educational facilities in this community, we hereby dedicate the Mirage of 1954-1955 to Mr. John H. Young.

Administrators

MR. PAUL HARDING

Superintendent of

New Haven Public Schools

Mr. Harding came to New Haven in 1950 as principal. At the beginning of the 1954-1955 school year, he became the superintendent of our school system.

He has an A.B. degree from Butler University and a M.A. degree from Indiana University.

His duties include general supervision of the entire school system. The financial aspect is his chief responsibility.

Under his supervision our school system has experienced a tremendous growth in the past few years. He has played a major part in the planning for future expansion as well.

MR. STANLEY GUENTHER

Associate Superintendent of

New Haven Public Schools

Having come to New Haven in the fall of 1954, Mr. Guenther is our associate superintendent.

He has a B.S. and Master's degree from Indiana University and Ball State Teachers College.

He has charge of transportation, maintainance and up-keep of buildings and grounds, purchasing of non-instructional supplies, and inspection of new construction.

Administrators

MR. MAYNARD HENWOOD

Principal

Mr. Henwood came to our school in 1952 as administrative supervisor and became principal in the fall of 1954.

He has an A.B. degree from Earlham College and a M.S. degree from Indiana University.

He is in charge of teaching personnel and students from kindergarten to grade twelve.

We are appreciative for his instructive guidance in our last years at New Haven.

MR. SCOTT ARMSTRONG

Administrative Supervisor

Mr. Armstrong has been with our school system since 1948. He has a B.S. degree from Butler University and his Master's degree from Indiana University.

He has charge of attendance, is director of athletics, and coaches track and football.

Office Secretaries

Waunita Davis, secretary to Mr. Harding in the main office.

Seniors

The peace and quiet of N. H. H. S. was greatly disturbed when, in the fall of 1951, 141 new and unlearned freshmen enrolled. For four years we have resided here; many pleasant times, and a few trying ones, shall be remembered.

When we entered, graduation seemed distant, but through these years offices held, extra-curricular activities attended, and studies laid aside or occasionally considered have greatly shortened our stay.

In our senior year we shall always remember the thrill of planning and attending Senior Day, the Senior and Junior reception, and most important—Commencement.

As we, the graduating class of nineteen-hundred and fifty-five, bid "Farewell" to the administrators, faculty, undergraduates, and our sponsors, we shall always cherish those days which can never be replaced or relived—our high school days at our Alma Mater—New Haven High School.

CLASS OFFICERS:

Class sponsors: Mr. Paul Armstrong, Mr. Kenneth Bandelier, and Mr. Norm Moser.

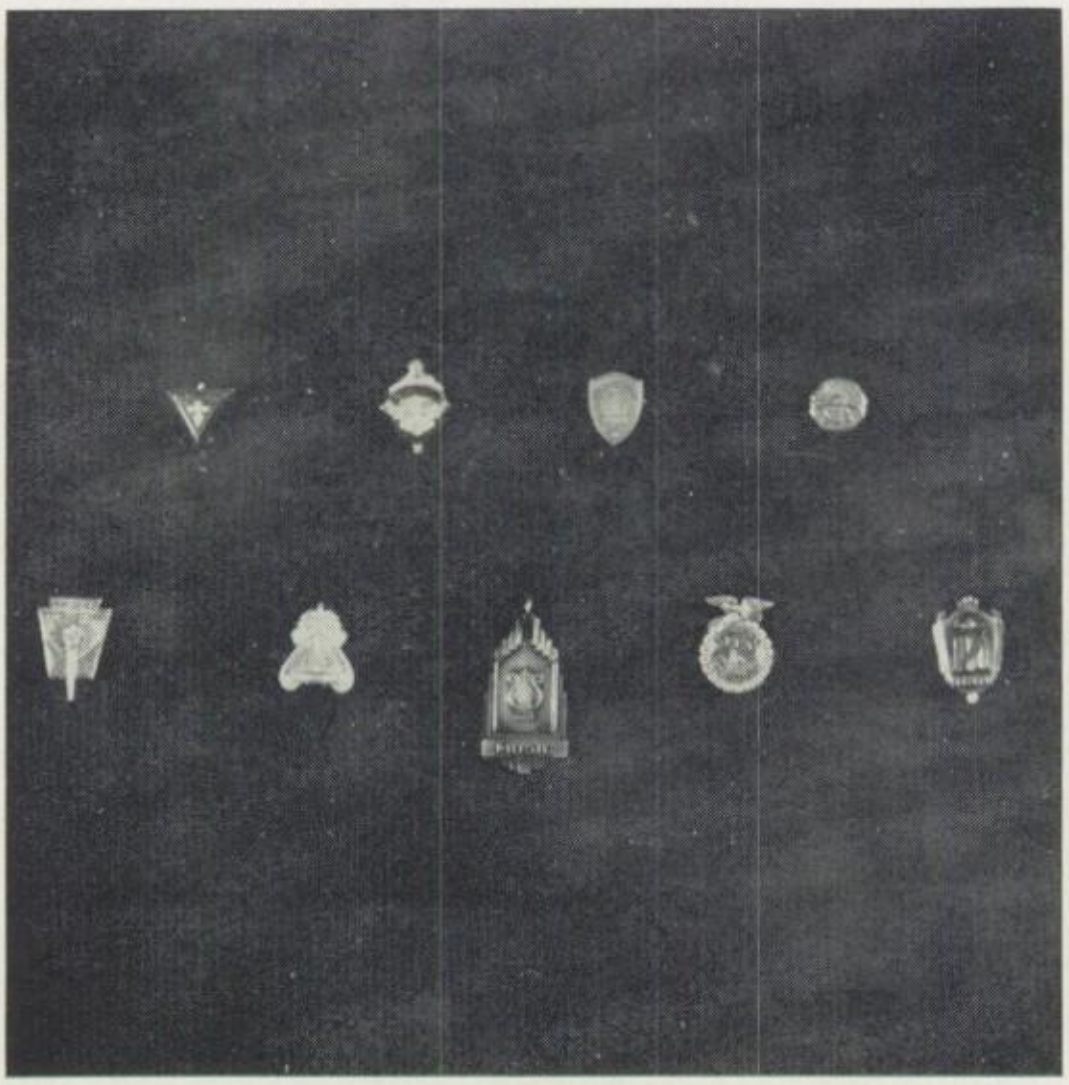
Organizations



National Honor Society

1954-55 MEMBERS OF NATIONAL HONOR

Sandra Guenther, Carrol Heine, Lou Hildinger, Larry Meyer, Beth Parent, Beverly Phillips, Carolyn Reinking, Pat Snyder, John Wiese, Sylvan Young.

NEW MEMBERS

Membership in National Honor Society, the highest scholastic honor in New Haven High School, is given to those who possess leadership, character, and scholarship, as well as willingness to be of service throughout the school.

National Honor Society sponsored an after-game dance on November 12. In the spring a joint banquet is held with Student Council. The new members are initiated at this banquet.

The officers of National Honor are: president, Sylvan Young; vice-president, Lou Hildinger; and secretary-treasurer, Carrol Heine. The sponsors of National Honor Society are Miss Opal Bower and Mr. Francis May.

Student Council

Student Council is composed of the presidents and vice-presidents of each class, a representative from each home room, a representative-at-large from the senior class chosen by the faculty, and a representative-at-large from the senior class chosen by the seniors.

The sponsors of the Student Council are Mrs. Lois Sidell and Mr. Paul Armstrong. Meetings are held each Tuesday in the library during the activity period.

Student Council played a major part in planning the Halloween Festival last fall. They also sponsored the Snowball Hop, an annual affair. The theme of this year's Hop was "Angels in the Sky". The students danced to the music of Bob Snowball's Orchestra. In addition, the election of cheerleaders is handled by them. The Student Council also helps to buy the cheerleaders' uniforms; they pay up to ten dollars per person per sport.

The monitor lists are arranged by the vice-president.

The Student Council officers are as follows: president, Dave Herbst; vice-president, Emmalyn Nord; secretary, Janice Quinlan; treasurer, Don Andorfer.

Row three: Rosie Koester, Emmalyn Nord, Lois Stegman, Georgianna Wiese, Peggy Burchardt, Jane Heine, Diane Weisman, Katie Frock, Verna Koeneman, Dorothy Lippott, Nancy Garpow. Accompanist: Margaret Unsicker.

The chorus of thirty-five students, under the direction of Richard E. Guthier, meets in the auditorium five days a week. It participated in the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter convocations. They also participated in singing at the Teachers Convention last fall, the Choral Festival in March, and the Spring Concert in May.

During the Christmas season the chorus members went caroling through the halls of the elementary school and high school.

Margaret Unsicker is piano accompanist.

Sunshine Society

The Sunshine Society of New Haven High School was founded in 1932. It is one of approximately 250 societies which make up the state organization. Any high school girl is eligible for membership. This year the Sunshine Society consists of 261 girls. The Society has tried to make its goal helpfulness and kindness to others.

The officers this year are: Beth Parent, president; Ann Brooks, vice-president; Carol Seiler, treasurer; Veronica Perez, secretary; Barbara Overholt, publicity chairman. The sponsors are: Mrs. Helen Troyer and Mrs. Lois Sidell.

The girls have enjoyed many activities this year: the Thanksgiving baskets that were given to the needy families near New Haven; the Christmas party for the under-privileged children of our school; and the Riley Fund collected on the annual Tag Day.

Many members will always have memories of the candlelight initiation, the "get-acquainted" party, the District and State Conventions, Christmas and Valentine parties, and the slumber-parties held in the gym every other year.

The girls choose an Ideal Lady at the beginning of the year. Throughout the year the Sunshine girl gives this lady gifts. In the spring at the Ideal Ladies' and Mothers' Tea, their identity is reaveled, and the quiet dignity of installation ceremonies is very much enjoyed.

Letterman's Club

The Letterman's Club is an organization of boys who have received awards for participation in interscholastic athletics. To remain active in the club every member must be currently participating in baseball, basketball, golf, football, or track on an interschool basis and fulfill the requirements set forth by the by-laws of the group.

The purpose of the organization is to promote the values of athletics through sportsmanship, physical conditioning, accomplishments, and the spirit of co-operation. Social plans of the organization include honor banquets for football, basketball, and spring sports in addition to a winter dance held in co-operation with the G.A.A.

The sponsors of this organization are Paul Armstrong and Harold Sering. The officers are: Don Henderson, president; Charles Roberts, vice-president; and Larry McComb, secretary-treasurer.

The Letterman's Banquet offered entertainment for fathers and sons. The master of ceremonies was Ralph Bearman and the speaker of the evening was Dike Eddleman, ex-Illinois athletic and Olympic athlete.

Projectionists' Club

The Projectionists' Club, which was organized in 1946, is under the direction of Mr. Keith Hunnings, science instructor. It is composed of more than 70 students; members of the science classes are automatically in the club, but other students may join also. The members are responsible for showing films to the grade school and to high school classes.

Phi Chi Science Club

Under the supervision of Mr. Keith Hunnings, the PHI CHI (Physics & Chemistry) Science Club was organized this year (1954-55). The aims of this organization are to perform experiments, conduct projects, and to understand the importance of science in daily living. All students who are or who have taken a science course are eligible to join the club. The officers of the club are as follows: Don Henderson, president; John Wiese, vice-president; and Don Suchma, secretary-treasurer.

Masque and Gavel is an organization dedicated to the improvement of English usage. This year Masque and Gavel sponsored Better English Week to help to do this. The organization is also a dramatics and speech club. During the year Masque and Gavel presented the Armistice Day program, a one-act play for Washington's birthday (Bake a Cherry Pie), and a three-act play, Don't Take My Penny.

A banquet was held in the spring to honor the new members.

Masque and Gavel is sponsored by Mr. Francis May. Officers are: Mary Jo Hause, president; Don Henderson, vice-president; Janet Benton, secretary; and Alvin Bicker, treasurer.

Student Librarians

The student librarians work diligently in keeping the library looking its best. They keep the stacks and files in their best order and also help students find information for reports in different classes. Librarians work during their study halls; the library is open from 7:50 to 3:16. The library sponsors are Mrs. Lois Sidell and Miss Opal Bower.

Mirage

The Editorial Staff has worked very diligently this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Merl Oberlin, to bring you a bigger and more enjoyable book. We have tried to add many interesting items which you shall remember when looking at your Mirage years from now. We hope that we have done a commendable job. What do you think?

Mirage

The Business Staff has raised the money from the local businessmen, who are responsible for a large percentage of our necessary funds, and also from the students by means of subscriptions to the Mirage. Their part of compiling funds for the annual is very much appreciated.

Hi-Y

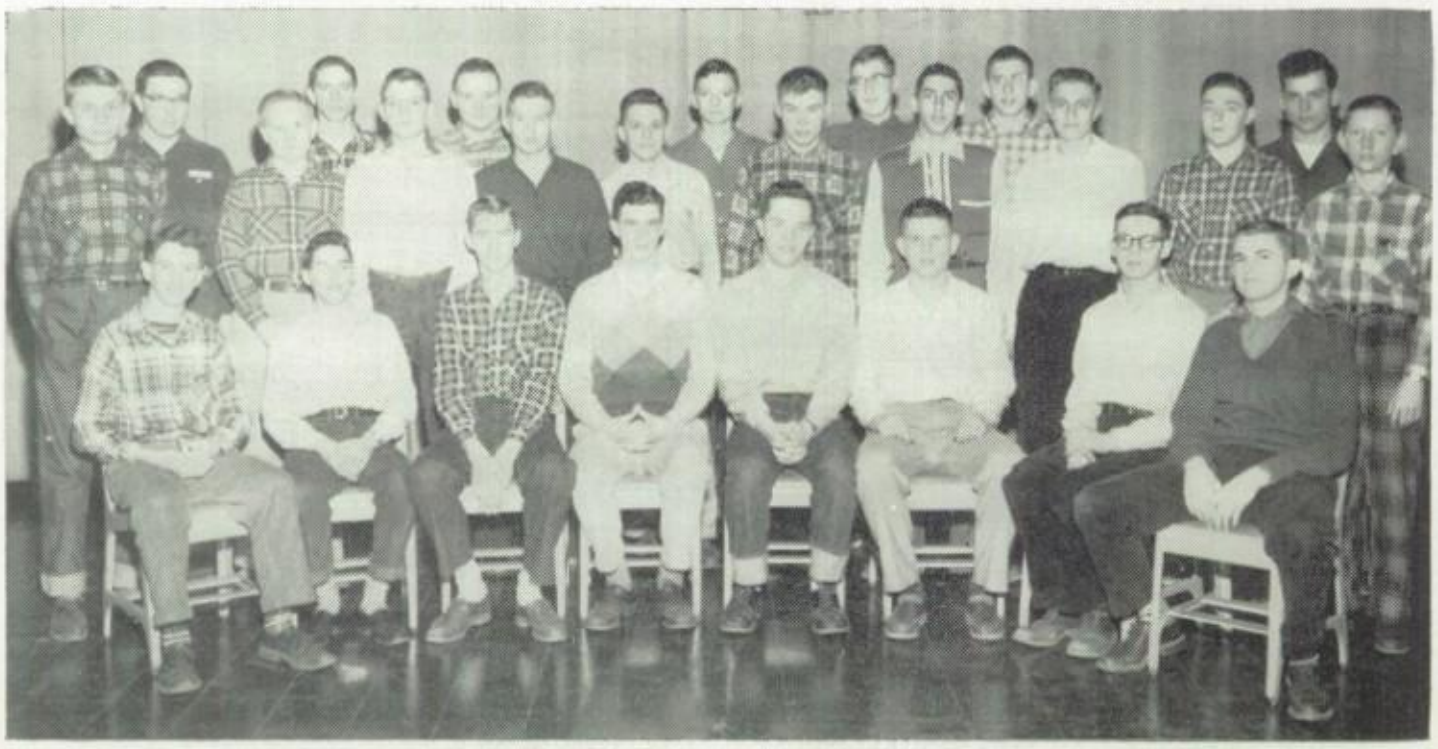
The purpose of Hi-Y is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

The platform is clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living.

The officers of Hi-Y are: Joe Malott, president; Dwyine Allgood, vice-president; Denny Nowels, secretary; Virgil Brockman, treasurer; David Linnemeyer, chaplain; Vernon Frisby, sergeant at arms; Stanley Clauss, project chairman; Don Henderson, program chairman; Bill Geroff, social chairman; and Don Buhr, membership chairman. The sponsor of this organization is Ben Roth.

The program seeks to give and stimulate spiritual, mental, and physical growth. We try to gain new insights as to how to make Christian decisions and how to become Christian leaders.

Future Farmers of America



This is an organization of farm boys enrolled in vocational agriculture. The purpose of this organization is to promote better farming methods in the community as well as provide social activities for its members.

One of the first activities of this chapter was to hold a father-son wiener bake in October at which time the Greenhands (new members) were inducted into the organization. In November and December the chapter participated in the Allen County F.F.A. pest hunt. In December the first F.F.A. Bowling Party was held. In January the chapter participated in the Allen County F.F.A. Jamboree, sponsored a square dance, and had another bowling party. A swimming party was held in February and a father-son banquet in March.

Last fall the chapter put on a safety tape and fire extinguisher sale.

The officers of this organization are: Ervin Evard, president; Robert Lepper, vice-president; Kenneth Peters, secretary; Paul Boldt, treasurer; Vernon Werling, reporter; David Lomont, sentinal; and Kenneth J. Bandelier, adviser.

Trophy Presentation

The 1954 New Haven Bulldogs continued their undefeated 1953 season by beating Garrett, Decatur, and Columbia City stretching their undefeated string to 15 before falling to Central of Fort Wayne, 13 to 2. They continued on the remainder of the season winning from Concordia, Bluffton, and South Side of Fort Wayne while losing only to Marion.

The Bulldogs ended up with six wins and two losses. They were undefeated in the NEIC Conference winning that for the second consecutive year which is a very good football season.

Ralph Bearman, end; Larry Glaze, end; and Dwyine Allgood, back; were selected for the all NEIC Conference first team. Ronald Huffer, back; Joe Malott, end; and Lou Hildinger, center; were selected on the second team.

Ronald Huffer was selected on the Indianapolis Times third All-State High School team.

New Haven Bulldogs scored a total of 220 points in 8 games for an offensive average of 27.5 points per game and a defensive average of 8.9 points scored against them.

The Freshman-Sophomore team was very successful again winning all of the games. They have lost only one game in the past three years.
